The Things Worth While

I have been trying to decide . . . what things are most worth while . . . and these I think are all of them . . . a prayer, a deed, a smile . . . a prayer to God in gratitude . . . for all that He has done . . . and to petition Him for strength . . . in battles to be won . . . a faithful deed to serve each need . . . and answer every call . . . especially for charity . . . however great or small . . . and just to have the friendly smile . . . that brightens up the day . . . and does so much to lighten cares . . . and take the clouds away . . . Yes, these I think are all of them . . . a prayer, a deed, a smile . . . to fill the world with happiness . . . and make this life worth while.

RELIGION

Some people think religion is . . . A church of wide acclaim . . . Where it is worth their while to have . . . A record of their name . . . Where they may go in Sunday clothes . . . That captivate the eye . . . To meet prospective customers . . . Who have the cash to buy . . . But that is not religion or . . . The reason for a church . . . And it is not the golden goal . . . For which the faithful search . . . Religion is that special way . . . In which we study God . . . And church is where we seek His help . . . Along the path we plod . . . Religion is the lamp that shines . . . To show the wrong from right . . . And draw the world from dark design . . . To everlasting light.

DEDICATION

The 1951 DAYTONIAN is a humble tribute to the Society of Mary whose untiring efforts to perpetuate Our Lady's attributes have yielded a university whose spirit is typified in the phrase "Our U. D. Family".

GOD, GIVE ME STRENGTH

God, give me strength to live and love . . . And fight for what is right . . . And let me have the courage to . . . Endure the haunting night . . . Let not the sun go down too soon . . . Lest I should lose the way . . . Let not the rain break forth, let not . . . A cloud be gray today . . . Let youth and hope impel me toward . . . The goal of all I seek . . . And let there be some wisdom in . . . Whatever words I speak . . . God, grant that all my music may . . . Be soft and gay and good . . . And of the beauty that is bright . . . And bravely understood . . . And give me grace, that I may give . . . What gratitude I can . . . For every inspiration in . . . The faith of fellow-man.

SUCCESS

Success is measured not by wealth . . . or everlasting fame . . . or by the winning score we make . . . in any single game . . . It is not gathered up at will . . . or fashioned over night . . . and it can never be retained . . . without a constant fight . . . Success is slowly harvested . . . by energy and toil . . . and it can only come to life . . . if there is fertile soil . . . It is the house where glory lives . . . and perseverance knocks . . . and faith and courage are the keys . . . that turn the master locks . . . It is the real and rich reward . . . that waits from year to year . . . for those whose hearts are honest and . . . whose efforts are sincere.

SENIOR SECTION

Don Cosgrove, Treasurer; Dick Mayer, President; Pauline Spring, Secretary; Jim Walsh, Vice President.

Friends At My Side

There are so many friendly songs . . . to fill my heart today . . . I never stop to look around . . . for any cloud of gray . . . And if a shadow comes along . . . it does not bother me . . . because my spirit is content . . . in kindly company . . . My friends are always at my side . . . to comfort and console . . . and help me find the faith I need . . . to gain my fondest goal . . . They offer every service they . . . can possibly bestow . . . to help me live a better life . . . wherever I may go . . . And so I feel I owe them each . . . an everlasting debt . . . And they may always rest assured . . . I never shall forget.

COLLEGE

Among the proudest moments of . . . Our life from day to day . . . Is when we start our college work . . . At home or far away . . . We feel so very grown in years . . . And not a little wise . . . And everything we say or do . . . we sort of emphasize . . . We study law or medicine . . . Philosophy or art . . . And usually athletics play . . . A most important part . . . Fraternities, sororities . . . And clubs of every kind . . . Contribute happy hours while . . . We educate our mind . . . And then one day our hands receive . . . The coveted degree . . . And we go out into the world . . . To shape its history.

PROFESSORS

Professors are respected souls . . . Albeit underpaid . . . And not infrequently they are . . . Quite dignified and staid . . . Their learning is attested to . . . By two or three degrees . . . From highly rated colleges . . . Or universities . . . They lecture by the hour . . . They carefully explain . . . The theories and facts there are . . . To fill the students brain . . . And in return they only ask . . . Obedience and truth . . . As part of their campaign to build . . . The character of youth . . . Professors are the persons who . . . Are plain and undisguised . . . But whose superb abilities . . . Are seldom recognized.

Hugh Brown
Director of Public Relations

"Pepper" Wilson
Publicity Director

PUBLICITY OFFICE

Formal Public Relations at the University of Dayton is one year old. Public Relations at U.D. is in its second century. A gradual evolution from a Press Bureau in the thirties through a Publicity Department in the forties has brought to the school on the hilltop full-fledged recognized Public Relations.

The Department embraces a strong active Publicity Department guided by a capable, professional director. Well-planned and executed comprehensive sports and academic press and magazine coverage resulted from projects evolved by the publicity wing of the program. With the Flyers in the National Invitational Tourney, much additional and impressive sports coverage resulted. In the academic publicity field, wider use was made of the wire services, and rural area newspapers were provided with custom-made stories of U.D. personnel.

In the purely Public Relations phase of the activity, it is significant to point out that of the eighteen major administrative and academic steps taken by the University of Dayton this last year, the Public Relations Department was concerned with the project either in its administration, its promotion, its control, or its follow-up. That is as it should have been since the chief Public Relations official in any institution is always the President. The director of the program is the confidential advisor, the carry-out man, the expeditor and the extra arms and legs of the President and policy makers.

Through an administration that has the proper conception of Public Relations and a President that is sympathetic, the director of U.D.'s program has been able to set-up, coordinate, and operate a program which includes publications, radio and TV, advertising, and special events all slanted toward the goals of increasing understanding, appreciation, good will and prestige for U.D. today and in the uncertain future faced by all education.

“Quiet Please! . . .”

Students at work in the cheerful interior of the Albert Emanuel Library. Built in 1928, graceful and beautiful in an atmosphere of tranquility, the library is one of the most popular places on the campus. Brother Francis Ruhlman, head of the library, along with his qualified assistants Brother John Verder and Brother Walter Roesch generously provide the students with the necessary material for their numerous assignments and term papers.

“Information Please”

Meet the controllers of “board of directions,” Mrs. Louise Gibson and Miss Louise Raiff, day and evening operators, respectively. These “voices with the smiles” are the liaison between the public and UD. No question seems too difficult to answer, always providing a challenge to which both operators are equal. They are key women to the smooth functioning of the University and help to maintain the high standard of proficiency for which UD has always been noted.

JUNIOR SECTION

My Loyal Friends

My greatest treasures are the friends . . . who always are the same . . . in poverty or plenty and . . . in humbleness or fame . . . Who comfort me when skies are gray . . . and everything goes wrong . . . and counsel me to try again . . . with courage new and strong . . . They are the ones whose kindly words . . . so much inspire me . . . to live a better life each day . . . and practice charity . . . In every way they show that they . . . are generous and true . . . and any favor I may ask . . . they are prepared to do . . . And someday I may search the world . . . for riches I have known . . . but I shall never be without . . . the friends I call my own.

I Have My Friends

If I had nothing else in life . . . to make me glad today . . . I would remember all the friends . . . who ever came my way . . . The ones who took me by the hand . . . and gave their smiles to me . . . who helped me on and did so much . . . to brighten memory . . . I would remember those who spoke . . . a kindly word or two . . . especially at a time when I . . . was feeling sort of blue . . . Yes, they would all return to me . . . and linger in my mind . . . and I would have joys again . . . I had to leave behind . . . But I am really not in need . . . of happiness today . . . Because I still have all the friends . . . who ever came my way.

True Friendship

A lasting friendship is a thing . . . that only you can make . . . but something that a second's time . . . is all it needs to break . . . The picture is the same as when . . . we plant an acorn small . . . and want it to become a tree . . . magnificent and tall . . . And then we swing our ax until . . . that one and final stroke . . . when we discover we have felled . . . the promise of an oak . . . A lasting friendship is a thing . . . of delicate design . . . that needs the rain and sunshine and . . . the silver stars that shine . . . Indeed it has to have the best . . . of care that we can give . . . if we would have it last as long . . . as ever we may live.

ETERNAL THANKS

I am so grateful to you, God . . . For all that you have done . . . From every golden dawn until . . . The setting of each sun . . . For every little favor and . . . the goals that I have gained . . . And even for my loneliness . . . Whenever it has rained . . . I thank you for the beauty of . . . The life you let me live . . . And for the opportunity . . . To borrow and to give . . . The chance to gather happiness . . . Wherever I may go . . . And in the wisdom of the world . . . To contemplate and grow . . . I am forever grateful for . . . The blessings I receive . . . And pray that I will never cause . . . Your loving heart to grieve.

THE STUDENT SENATE

The Student Senate, completed its third year of activities as a subordinate legislative group of the student government. This year the Student Senate assisted the Student Council in the welcoming of the freshmen and other new members of the student body.

The many activities of this organization were: Planning and carrying out a rush week in which clubs were urged to recruit new members for the bettering of their organization . . . entering dates of club activities on the school calendar . . . airing the problems and plans of all campus organizations . . . planning and staging a variety show . . . making new plans with the Student Council for welcoming the freshmen of 1952 . . . and urging cooperation and school spirit among all student organizations.

Officers for the year were: Al Neff (C.S.M.C.), President; Walt McMahon, (Pershing Rifles), Vice-President; Frosty Suttman, (Electrical Engineers), Treasurer; Julie Raney, (Home Economics Club), Secretary.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council of 1950-1951, guided by president, James Gilvary; vice-president, John Bramlage; secretary, Mary E. Nagle, and treasurer, Bill Enouen, will be remembered as one of the most active organizations of the student governing bodies. It is the median through which the students voice their opinions, suggestions, and criticisms. The representatives of the Student Council were named at class elections and the president of each class is automatically made a member.

The various activities of the council included the sponsoring of various social affairs, providing financial backing for several dances and other activities, making recommendations to the Administration concerning desired improvements on the campus and with different organizations and among the student body in general. Many added privileges, improvements, and activities obtained for the students came by the diligent and trusting work of the Student Council.

EDUCATION CLUB

Delta Epsilon Kappa was organized a year ago by a group of interested students with the guidance of Mr. Bart Lubbers for the purpose of promoting moral, ethical, and professional teacher growth and competence. Since its formation the club has attempted to provide projects and settings where future teachers, professional educators, and teachers in service could work, study, and exchange ideas, and investigate the current problems in the field of elementary and secondary education. Degrees are awarded according to merit points to members who participate in club activities.

The year's activities of the club were concluded with a banquet and party May 10.

First officers of the club were: Robert Bruggeman, president; Philip Gleason vice-president; Pauline Spring, secretary, and Thalia Johnson, treasurer. Officers elected for next year are: Thalia Johnson, president; James Gleason, vice-president; Rita Wittman, secretary, and Margaret Kunka, treasurer.

ADVANCED ACCOUNTING CLUB

The purpose of the club since its organization in 1948 has been to correlate academic accounting theory with actual accounting practice.

Discussion meetings were held at which prominent men from business explained accounting as practiced in their particular fields. These included men from financial institutions, municipal government, and private industry, and the last meeting featured the presence of the resident manager of Peet, Marwick, & Mitchell, Cincinnati public accounting firm.

The officers for the year were: Harry Parr and Edward Gaul, Co-Presidents; Clifford Scholes, Vice President; Donald Mescher, Treasurer; and Harold J. Drees, Secretary. Mr. Jackson served as faculty moderator.

DEBATING SOCIETY

Under the guidance of William O. Wehrle, S.M., moderator, assisted by the following officers: Robert Kennedy, President; Shearl Roberts, Vice-president; Donald Schweller, Treasurer; and Robert Westendorf, Secretary, the debate season of 1950-51 was the most extensive ever undertaken by Upsilon Delta Sigma both in the number of debates held and mileage covered. In all 56 intercollegiate debates were held, and 8500 miles were traveled in accomplishing this record.

Three tours were made taking eight members East, Midwest, and to the Pacific Coast. The schools which played host to the debaters on the Eastern Tour were: Western Reserve, Case, Canisius, Union, U.S. Military Academy, Fordham, St. Peter's, Seton Hall, Temple, LaSalle, Georgetown, and Duquesne.

With the headquarters in Chicago another team met the following schools: Illinois at Navy Pier, Northwestern, DePaul, Wheaton, Lake Forest, Mundeline, Loyola, and Notre Dame. On the society's first trip to the Pacific Coast the following schools were the opposition: California, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, University of San Francisco, Stanford, San Jose State, and San Francisco State.

Besides these trips the debaters took part in a triangular meet including Ohio State and Capital at Columbus, and the NFCCS Regional Tournament held this year at Villa Madonna College in Covington, Kentucky.

Various organizations also heard the debaters discuss the National topic: Resolved: That All Non-communist Nations Should Form a New International Organization. These groups included: the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the International Relations Club, the Women's Club, the patients of Ward 22 at the Veterans Administration Hospital and those of Stillwater Sanatorium.

The highlight of the home schedule was the visit of two Cadets from West Point. Charles E. Brant was presented with the President's Award for excellency in debating at the annual banquet which concluded the activities for the year.

The Sigma Delta Pi Honorary Premedical Society finished its fifteenth year on the campus in its traditional successful manner. The society is made up of students in premedical, pre dental and allied fields, who meet the requirements of high scholarship, strong interest, and good character.

Meetings are held bi-weekly, at which times papers and talks are presented by either advanced students or speakers from the professional fields; among the topics discussed this year, were Socialized Medicine, Antibiotics, Osteoarthritis, and Orthopedic Surgery.

The Sigma Delta Pi News, edited this year by James Baumgarten, serves as a link between present members and the alumni of the club.

Recognizing the value of social qualities in academic and professional men, the entire organization participated happily in our fall wiener roast, the Christmas Party, the annual banquet, and the grandest annual picnic.

Officers of the club were: Harold Kelso, president; Richard Schuler, Vice President; Robert Busse, Treasurer; and Alice Duffy, Secretary. Our Moderator, is the Dean of Science, Dr. Louis A. Saletel, S.M.

HANGAR

One of the largest and most active organizations on the campus, Flyer's Hangar is now in its sixth year of existence. The group was originally formed as a means of bringing students closer through informal social functions. Many lasting friendships have been formed through Hangar events in the last six years.

In addition to the regular Sunday dances held every other week at the Loretto, Hangar members this year attended some half dozen parties at the Canoe Club and the Touchdown Club, an ice-skating party at Troy, several picnics and the annual "big" dance, celebrating Hangar's anniversary. Hangar succeeded in electing their Homecoming candidate, staging an active campaign. The annual Sadie Hawkins dance was, as usual, well-managed by the girls and was true to tradition.

SPIRIT COMMITTEE

The Spirit Committee adds the "Rah Rah" and the "Yeah Team" to all the sports activities of the Red and Blue athletic teams before, during, and after the game. Their activities of the year were many; each sporting activity was well-"publicized", "posterized", and "paraded." Previous to the football and basketball games, this group of students met and painted posters which were hung in strategic places to bolster morale. They also gathered the sports-minded students and held pep rallies, parades, and welcomes. During the football season, pep rallies were held for every game and the Spirit Committee saw the team off when the games were away from Home. During Homecoming, the Spirit Committee did a big job in decorating the queen stand and float. They also arranged an excursion to Lexington, Kentucky, and another one to Toledo to cheer the football team on in its encounter. Officers for the year were: Bill Kehl, president; Dan Ferazza, vice-president; Marianne Roll, secretary; and Dave Ford, treasurer.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club, Upsilon Delta Chi, enjoyed a very successful year in its academic and cultural projects.

All activities had for their common theme the development of social and good family relationships. Leadership and active participation are prerequisites for the members of the organization.

Prominent in the year's schedule were the card party, for which the members prepared candies, cookies, as well as aprons; the Style Show; the Christmas party; the Mother-Daughter dinner, at which Mrs. Kessler spoke on Textile fabrics; and the Annual Luncheon. The club was very active in setting up displays for the Career Day at the University.

A great measure of the club's success is due to the enthusiasm and initiative of the Moderator, Mrs. Eithel Rose, Head of the Department of Home Economics, and the Officers: Julie Raney, president; Janet Finke, vice president; Marlene Fischer, recording secretary; Virginia Tate, corresponding secretary; Pat Wilson, treasurer; Shirley Schroll, publicity chairman; and Alice Remnant, Program Chairman.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

This organization offers all the students of the University an opportunity to study and discuss questions of national and international significance. A competent and well-versed moderator assisted in the promotion of interests in international affairs. The many veterans of the Club this year offered personal observations, experiences, and modes of life from many of the foreign countries and territories they visited.

At regular bi-monthly meetings, topics discussed included Russian-American relations, American policy toward Korea and Formosa, Spain and Franco, education and reconstruction in Germany, and the world situation in general.

Under the capable guidance of the faculty advisor for the Club, Dr. de la Salandra, the Club achieved a moderate but active membership and succeeded in arranging many new and interesting speakers and topics for general discussion during its meetings.

Officers for the past season were: William F. Hilbert, President; Richard F. Beach, Vice President; James N. Bily, Treasurer; and Robert H. Hickey, Recording Secretary.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

Capably and painstakingly directed by John I. McGrath and Mrs. Annette S. Anduze the University Players hit a new high in entertainment this season. This was described by Journal-Herald drama critic, A. S. Kany, as "what we unhesitatingly regard as their best to date, artistically speaking."

The year was one filled with unexpected and oft times unusual occurrences. Everything from a rooster's impromptu crowing during a tender love scene to several Garden-bound-Player "big" games on performance nights served to throw obstacles in the Players' path. Also to be considered was a minor weather detail—an eleven-inch sprinkling of snow—that almost completely stalled attendance for one performance, and then wiped another off the schedule entirely for audience and Culp-cornered thespians alike. But taking the unlooked-for in lengthened stride, the Players bore down and carried the season with flying Black-and-Gold.

Although four productions had been planned for the year, the afore-mentioned feathery precipitation in November necessitated re-staging of "The Silver Whistle," resulting in only three plays this season. After the "Whistle" was plugged with slush, everything became dated A.B.—After the Blizzard. Thus the second attempt at McEnroe's handicraft was shown (successfully, this time) in January, A.B.; this was closely followed in March, A.B. by the first annual Passion Play ever to be staged in Dayton. A few notes on this dramatic treatment of our Lord's last immortal hours: a cast of fifty, colorful costumes, spectacular lighting effects, impressive scene changes, and actual Spiritual text combined to make this play long-remembered by each member of the audience.

Emelyn Williams' murder-thriller, "Night Must Fall," was presented in April as the school year round the bend into the home stretch, and the audiences were jolted from their spring doldrums by the mystery of the hatbox and its contents.

The headaches of management this year fell to an Executive Committee embracing Joanne Combs, Mary Ann Hess, Charles Bernard, George Uher, and Jim Walsh.

Players received membership cards, certificates, or keys emblematic of their individual endeavor, and cloudy-eyed farewells were bade to fourteen troupers who graduate from college to pursue jobs, easy chairs, or first-sergeants.

Nu Epsilon Delta, the nurses' honorary society was organized in 1948, the year of the Diamond Jubilee of Nursing. The purpose of the society is to create enthusiasm for superior scholarship and to develop leaders in nursing who will advance nursing education and the profession of nursing.

For the monthly meetings the program committee attempts to present prominent speakers both in the field of nursing and other professions, thus stressing the development of the nurse as a whole.

Highlighting the year's activities were a Christmas party, a tea in honor of the U. of D. faculty, an annual banquet and various other social affairs.

Officers of the society are: Margaret M. Oracko, R.N., C.M., president; Beulah Langman, R.N., secretary; Esther Matheson, R.N., treasurer; Sister M. Minalia S.P.S.F., R.N., M.A., moderator.

The Society for the Advancement of Management is the recognized national professional society of management people in industry, commerce, government, and education. Representing no special interests, it is motivated by a selfless zeal to spread the benefits of scientific management wherever management is required.

The organization has as its background various organizations dating from the Taylor Society, organized in 1912, to forward the ideas of Frederick W. Taylor and his associates who had developed the concept of scientific management.

The Student Chapter, under the sponsorship of the Dayton Chapter was organized here on our campus in 1949 after the untiring efforts of Dr. O'Leary, professor and head of the Business Organization and Economics Departments.

The activities of the organization are patterned after the senior chapters, and as such, plan to further the advances in scientific management. This goal is made possible by plant visitations, business problems seminars, and educational dinner meetings. In addition, several officers and members attended the National Annual Conference, held in the Statler Hotel, New York City, during the first week of November.

Officers of the organization were: Robert J. Kepler, president; Robert J. Lukey, vice-president; William Beecroft, secretary; and Haldron Latham, treasurer. John Ondercin and Howard Fricke served as representatives to the Student Senate.

MATHEMATICS CLUB

Founded in 1940 under the direction of Dr. K. C. Schraut, The Mathematics Club of the University of Dayton has for its aim the promotion of interest in those branches of pure and applied mathematics that are not covered in class. At bi-weekly meetings members of the Club present papers on various fields of math. At the end of each semester the Dean of Science award is given to that member who presents the most interesting paper for that period.

It was within this club that the idea of the University of Dayton Guidance-Career Day was initiated, with the purpose in mind of offering help in choosing a career to those high school students who wished to attend college.

The officers for the year were Richard Blaes, president; Hilary Allemeier, vice-president; William Walsh and Kenneth Bush, secretary for the first and second semester respectively; Patrick Luby, treasurer; and James Tumbusch and Eduardo Mulanovich, publicity secretary for the first and second semester respectively.

SOCIOLOGY SOCIETY

The Students' Sociology Society, Sigma Sigma Sigma, of the University of Dayton was organized in 1946 under the direction of Dr. Edward A. Huth, Head of the Department of Sociology. The purpose of the society is to discuss social problems, particularly those which affect twentieth century civilization. Its function is social as well as academic. Monthly meetings are held in the Albert Emanuel Library.

In addition to discussions by the membership and guest speakers, the society held its Christmas dinner at the Red Gables. The May dinner meeting, devoted to the theme: "I am an American," was held at the University of Dayton. Among the activities of the society were the sponsorship of several clinics at the Dayton State Hospital, and the promotion of the annual sociology tour to places of sociological interest. On May 15, the society visited the Ohio Penitentiary, the State Department of Public Welfare, and the Columbus State School for the feebleminded.

Under the capable leadership of: Patrick J. Kinkade, president; John Donovan, vice president; Mary Sullivan, secretary; William H. Stevens, treasurer; Arthur Kulinski, program chairman; William J. Donohue, membership chairman; Richard C. Loeber, publicity secretary; and, George F. Smolinski, sergeant-at-arms, an active social year was enjoyed.

SALES and RETAILING CLUB

Since its founding in October, 1949, the Sales and Retailing Club has had for its aim the betterment of knowledge about the sales-retail field of industry. This knowledge was more advanced from the normal acquisition and ideas discussed in the classroom since many guest-speakers who headed industry highlighted the program of speakers for the year. This enabled the members to get various ideas and viewpoints which help them to obtain a more thorough knowledge of industry, and also offers greater possibilities of employment upon graduation.

A series of several Career Counselling Meetings were held throughout the year. Panel discussions were held by three prominent and successful businessmen; they outlined various programs and systems now used in modern industry, and thus gave the members of the club many new ideas and topics about modern-day sales and retailing.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASS'N.

Inaugurating a successful season with intramural hockey, W.A.A. blazed its way through such teams as Wittenberg, Ohio State, Otterbein, Earlham, and Mt. St. Joseph. With a brief respite, W.A.A. again took up its cudgels immediately after Christmas for an interclass volleyball tournament, the seniors being declared the winners. Joan Oldiges' team proved victorious in a thrilling basketball tournament. The lasses took to the road, playing such famous colleges as Ohio State, Antioch, and Wittenberg. W.A.A. rounded out its athletic activities with the inclusion of badminton, tennis, archery, and golf.

W.A.A.'s aim to complement athletic with social was realized by their Hallowe'en party, a picnic, and the annual dinner.

Officers for the current year were Virginia MacMillan, president; Celeste McMullen, vice-president; Joan Oldiges, secretary; Peggy Howley, treasurer; Jeannine Gunckel and Gloria Taylor, chairmen of awards.

OUR YOUNG SOLDIERS

Our soldiers are so very young . . . For what they have to do . . . Their sweetest songs are still unsung . . . Their memories are few . . . And yet their strength of flesh and mind . . . Surpasses you and me . . . And they are just the daring kind . . . To bring us victory . . . They have the stamina and they . . . Believe in what is right . . . They know we have the way . . . They carry out the fight . . . They know the tide is theirs to stem . . . And turn against the foe . . . And we sincerely honor them . . . Wherever bugles blow . . . COLONEL THOMAS J. O'CONNOR

Colonel Thomas J. O'Connor joined the University of Dayton Military staff as Professor of Military Science and Tactics in August 1950.

The Colonel came to us with a fine military record. He was graduated from West Point in 1933. Pearl Harbor found him in Hawaii, in the thick of things. He spent the entire war period in the Pacific Theater of Operations, ending up as G-3 of the 24th Infantry Division.

At the conclusion of hostilities Colonel O'Connor was sent to Washington, D.C. where he served on the Demobilization Board. He was then sent to Princeton University, New Jersey, for two years of post graduate studies. After this, he was again assigned to Washington, D.C., where he stayed until he was assigned to the U. D. staff.

PERSHING RIFLES

Company B-1 of the National Society of Pershing Rifles opened activities with pledge call early in October of the school year and following a six weeks training and pledge period 54 new members were awarded the blue and white citation cord of the organization at formal initiation ceremonies in the student union building.

In November, Miss Marlene Fischer, sophomore science student, from Dayton, was chosen to succeed retiring PR sponsor Honorary Colonel Marilyn Hauer, who was runner-up in the annual national PR sponsor contest. Miss Hauer was selected from entries from more than 61 colleges over the nation.

In December, the annual Christmas Ball opened the winter social season with Woody Herman and his band providing music. Miss Fischer was formally initiated as B-1's sponsor and crowned queen of the Ball by Miss Hauer.

In February, inroads by enlistment and draft into the Armed Forces necessitated a new pledge period and initiation of new members. The formation of the Pershing Rifles exhibition drill squad was also begun and in the following months the group put on more than a dozen exhibitions for veterans' organizations, hospitalized veterans at both Brown and Wright-Patterson Air Force base hospitals, participated in the Armed Forces day exhibition, and the Memorial Day parade.

PERSHING RIFLES

In April, the squad, under the command of Cadet Lt. Joseph Koehler, took part in the Michigan Invitational Drill meet at Ann Arbor, Mich., and took first place in squad and exhibition drill while Lt. Koehler took second in individual drill competition.

A new branch of Pershing Rifle activities was also inaugurated here at U.D. when the headquarters of the newly formed Second Battalion was established here under the command of Cadet Lt. Col. William J. Herlihy. Col. Herlihy was commander of the local company until his new assignment and was succeeded by Captain Harold Kelso.

SCABBARD and BLADE

Scabbard and Blade, a National Military Society of select Advanced Course students, is on the threshold of its third season at the University of Dayton campus. Company A-9, first organized here in 1949, has been making itself felt ever since.

Sponsoring its first Military Ball on March 30, Company A-9 opened the post-lenten social season with the annual dance. Miss Joan Crotty, the Company sponsor, was crowned queen of the ball by Cadet Captain Rudy Roof.

Regular meetings held every two weeks consisted in the presentation and discussion of military events and problems.

Capably serving in offices of the unit were Rudy Roof, Captain; Robert Hoffman, First Lieutenant; Harry Parr, Finance Officer; and William Crotty, First Sergeant.

RIFLE TEAMS

BATTALION OFFICERS

With Major William Harrigan and M/Sgt. Claude Allen as leaders, three U. D. Rifle teams concluded a successful season.

Participating in postal matches which were fired against the leading collegiate teams in the country, the ROTC team won thirteen of eighteen meets. Placed among the ten top teams in the Second Army Area which qualified them to fire in the National ROTC match and firing in the Hearst Trophy Match were two of their outstanding achievements.

The Varsity Rifle team participated in shoulder-to-shoulder type matches, winning seven of eleven meets. Becoming a member of the National Rifle Association on January 12, the Varsity Rifle team deserves partial commendation for the formation of the Southwestern Ohio Inter-Collegiate League among Ohio University, University of Cincinnati, and University of Dayton. Bob Eisenlohr and Jim Kendall serve as President and Secretary, respectively, of this League whose headquarters are situated on our own University of Dayton campus. Ohio University was awarded the annual League trophy.

Upon completion of the new 12-point range, the Rifle Range of St. Mary's Hall will no longer be used. Possessing an abundance of qualities in their favor, namely experienced shooters, different surroundings, and new equipment, all eyes will be on the Rifle teams for future success matched only with the feats of this season.

The Cadet Council was formed during this school year under the direction of Major William F. Harrigan. Its purpose is to further and supervise the social and disciplinary activities of the corps of cadets.

The council is composed of two members of each ROTC class. The Cadet Regimental Commander, and a member of the Military Staff are invited to attend all meetings, but have no vote in the council decisions.

The council met several times this past year, and got off to a fine start. It is expected to grow more in importance as time passes.

LIFE IS A SONG

The passing years have taught me that . . . This life is like a song . . . And only that we think it so . . . There is not any wrong . . . There is not any heartache, and . . . There are not any tears . . . Except as we remember them . . . Throughout the passing years . . . There is not any worry or . . . A reason to regret . . . When it is just as easy to . . . Forgive and to forget . . . There is no storm that does not pass . . . And leave a quiet sea . . . Or any day that does not hold . . . Some pleasant memory . . . There is no rain that does not turn . . . To sunshine in the end . . . Or anyone, who if we try . . . We cannot call a friend.

U. D. BAND

Something new has been added to the Band in Baton-twirler Dick Patesel. Replacing All-American Bob Dawson, Dick hails from Logansport, Indiana, and is a freshman in the Liberal Arts Division.

Highstepping their way into the 1950-51 season, sixty-four Bandsmen and sixteen "Marching Coeds" lived up to their reputation of being the "Best Small College Band." Knowing their flair for putting on brilliant half-time shows, the public this year was witness to even more spectacular performances, especially at the Miami and Kentucky games. This band of ours, accomplishing the impossible, outdid itself at the Thanksgiving game in Chattanooga, and left with the whole city lauding its efforts.

The Band, complemented by the marching coeds, featured a "Stormy Weather" routine, along with a perfectly-executed "Company, front!"

Other accomplishments of this year's group included the "On Parade", which was a variety show given in the Fieldhouse to a near-capacity audience, a sale of the school songs which were recorded under the R.C.A. label, and the organization of an "Alumni Band Association", which boasts of two-hundred members from New York to Mexico.

The Band was ably directed by Maurice Reichard, assisted by Nelson Harper. Ray Rieger served as President and Chris Perrotta as Vice-President; Jim Meyer was Treasurer, and Lee Like, Publicity Director.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is designed to meet the needs of those men who like to get together and sing. Three tours were taken this year to nearby towns in addition to the annual spring concert. Such favorites as "Stout Hearted Men", "Dry Bones", and "The Halls of Ivy", were sung during the past year. The group is open to all men of the University.

UNIVERSITY MIXED CHORUS

The University Chorus is open to all members of the student body. Its activities include formal concerts, radio and television, assemblies, and an annual tour. This year the tour included Coldwater, Ohio; Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Chicago, Illinois.

The students in the chorus sing the best of choral material and enjoy the social contacts the group presents.

HISTORY CLUB

In the spring of the current academic year, a chapter of Pi Alpha Theta was established at the University of Dayton. Officers of this first History Club were Rev. Clement J. Lambert, S.M., president; Eugene Jablinski, Vice-President; Richard Loy, Secretary; and Paul Osweiler, Treasurer. One of the most important goals of the Club is to foster more intensive interest in history, at the same time affording members a medium for additional history pursuits outside the classroom.

THE EXPONENT

First appearing on our campus in 1902-1903, the Exponent has come through the years with no interruption in publication.

A monthly magazine, it affords a release for the student gifted with a journalistic bent as well as many hours of pleasurable reading for those whose talents lie in other directions. Contributions range from humorous sketches and articles to poetry and essays. The experience in work of this kind provides the future writer with invaluable experience along literary lines.

Under the able direction of Brother Thomas Price, S.M., James Cooney served as editor-in-chief, and was assisted by Mary Ellen Nagle, editor of the woman's page, and Shirley McNeil, poetry editor. Associate editors consisted of William Huth, Francis Schmalz, Paul Beshara, Peg Kunka, Tula Vardalides, and Willard Crowell. Illustrators were Dan Zamorski, Virginia MacMillan, Tom Eshelman, and Betty Osweiler.

This year's working staff of reporters have maintained the superior rating of "All-American" and "All-Catholic" honors which the U.D. News has won consistently over more than a decade of years.

By the human interest or feature touch, the use of students in the news, and a conscious effort at campus-wide coverage the staff got readers to read the things they should know about and understand concerning our University of Dayton.

Walter McMahon was editor-in-chief. Brother George F. Kohles, S.M., M.A., instructor in journalism, was faculty adviser.

O. S. P. E.

Following its aim of instilling in engineering students the conscience of practical engineering, the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers has had a profitable year. During this period the various lines of engineering development have been ably meted out to the students by competent professional engineers and by the moderator, Brother Andrew Weber, S.M., whose explanation of the Professional Examinations will no doubt prove valuable to this year's graduates.

Insofar as organizational life is concerned, the most noteworthy event was the forming of a Student Council of OSPE, a functional group composed of representatives of the various student chapters in Ohio. The U.D. group was well represented at the founding ceremonies, and at the OSPE convention in Toledo.

The officers were James Gibbons, president; John Cochran, vice-president; Joe Day, treasurer; and Clarence Kessler, secretary.

STUDENT CHAPTER - A. S. C. E.

The Silver Anniversary of its foundation - a banner year for activities of the Student Chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers!

For the first time in its history, the Chapter was host to the North Central Conference of Student Chapters ASCE. The highly-successful Convention attracted more student representatives than any previous Annual Meeting of the Conference. George Vance was Conference President; Richard Shell was Secretary and Donald Grimme, Treasurer.

The highest award conferred by the American Society of Civil Engineers was won by the University of Dayton Student Chapter. The U. D. Chapter received the Certificate of Commendation "for excellence in the effective and meritorious conduct of its affairs."

Officers for the calendar year 1950 were: George Vance, Richard Stratton and Felix Andrews. Present officers are: Neal Kurfiss, Donald Grimme and Richard Thomas. Bro. George Spahn is faculty adviser and Mr. John Puterbaugh, U. D. '37, is the contact member.

PI DELTA RHO

Pi Delta Rho, composed of Junior and Senior Electrical Engineering students particularly interested in the problems of electrical power generation, transmission and distribution, is under the direction of Brother Louis Rose, faculty moderator. The purpose of the organization is to promote weekly discussions on topics pertaining to the power field.

Because of the increased use of electronics in power, the group departed from its usual practice of separate meetings and this year held joint meetings with the IRE, thereby gaining added knowledge of the electronic field.

Officers for the year were Richard Blaes, president; Louis Suttman, secretary-treasurer; and John Dixon, social chairman.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING SOCIETY

Believing that all work and no play would make any Engineer a dull person, the Mechanical Engineering Society mixed business with pleasure.

The technical side of Mechanical Engineering was augmented by several lectures on air-conditioning and various phases of their respective fields.

Not to be outdone along the social lines, the Mechanical Engineering Society sponsored a Homecoming Queen, held a successful dance, and rounded out the year with an enjoyable picnic.

Officers and their duties for the year were Merrill Ridgway, president; Thomas Lechner, vice-president; Eduardo Mulanovich, secretary; and James Mushett, treasurer. Upon the departure of James Mushett to the service, Henry Troin successfully undertook the office of treasurer. Mr. Adrian J. Westbrook was the faculty moderator.

Baccalaureate Service

Mindful of the school motto "Pro Deo et Patria," the academic year drew to a close in a manner befitting a religious institution. Graduates and faculty alike offered thanks to Almighty God for the many blessings and favors that He bestowed upon the school. Not the least among these blessings was the advantage of a deeply Christian education from the University of Dayton.

HONORS DAY CONVOCATION

Twenty-three seniors attained better than a 3.5 scholastic average. A large number of students, besides, were honored for their leadership in extra-curricular activities.

FLYERS IN NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

For this relatively brief moment the eyes of the nation's sports world were on this five lads—from the University of Dayton. But what's more important—the University of Dayton had found a spot in the hearts of countless thousands.

For out of the Midwest had come this little band of Flyers to capture the fancy of brusk New York, of the country's sports experts whose appraisal is given only with a critical eye.

The spotlight of the 1951 NIT has faded, but praise for the courageous, tested Flyers continues to ricochet about the world.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Harry C. Baujan

For the first time in twenty-nine years, Harry Baujan's coaching tactics have not been felt by a Flyer team. The Athletic Director of the University was forced to drop the last of his coaching reins, baseball, to concentrate solely upon administrative problems. The former Notre Dame graduate was busy carrying out the duties of running the brand new $600,000 U of D Fieldhouse.

Baujan came to the Hilltop in 1922 and since then the teams he has sent out to fight for the Red and Blue have always done exceptionally well. His teams have always been rated "outstanding" and ranked among the nations' very best. The hustling

Flyer director relinquished all coaching worries, though, as he handed the coaching duties in baseball to John Marschall.

Although his coaching record has been outstanding, it has been remarkable the way Baujan has been able to bring some of the nations' finest clubs into Dayton, thus proving the fine personality of the likable UD Athletic Director.

Under his guidance, Baujan has asserted his chief aim here at the University that, "athletics, physical education, and recreation should be an integral part of the student's education".

FLYER GRIDIRON COACHES

Faced with one of the toughest football schedules in the University's history, head coach Joe Gavin and his coaching staff still were able to compile a record of four wins as against six losses.

The Flyer football chief had to dig deep in his bag of tricks to come up with a winner last fall. Lack of depth and inexperience were bound to take their toll on the schedule which boasted three bowl teams.

Gavin, a graduate of Notre Dame, starred there in basketball and captained the Irish five in 1930-31. He came to UD from Holy Name High in Cleveland where his football teams had won 84 times, lost 37, and played in 13 ties over a 15 year span.

Gavin left a lot of his football worries to his able backfield coach, Joe Quinn. The UD mentor also had a capable line coach in the person of Ralph McGehee. The latter was one of the few men to win four football letters at Notre Dame. In four years at tackle, not once did he play in a losing game.

Freshmen football coach, Johnny Marschall, passed on an undefeated frosh club to the varsity, but lack of experience hampered this group of players.

Danny O'Brien, (60), scoots around end for the lone TD of Flyer-Penguins clash.

FLYERS EDGE PENGUINS 7 - 0

Joe Gavin's young men must live right. Perhaps that's the best way to explain UD's victory over Youngstown College before an estimated crowd of 7500 fans.

Just 25 seconds remained in the first half, left halfback Danny O'Brien skirted right end easily for the single yard that lay between the ball and pay-off terrain. He did it while the Penguins' forwards were bunched around center bent on stopping a smash by Leroy Ka-Ne that turned out to be a fake. Bernie Otten tacked on the extra point with a perfect place kick.

BONNIES PIN FIRST LOSS 40 - 14

Olean, N. Y., Oct. 1—The St. Bonaventure gridders gave their most ardent followers a pleasant surprise this afternoon when they exploded for three quick touchdowns in the initial period and went on to win, 40-14.

Sophomore Ted Marchibroda and Junior Hanifin caught fire and the Brown Indians gained their revenge for the 1949 loss, 28-13, which had been administered by the visiting Flyers. Marchibroda completed nine of thirteen passes for 228 yards and two touchdowns. Hanifin, besides taking one of Marchibroda's passes for a 79-yard scoring run, slipped through the Dayton line for three other TDs.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS DROP UD 40 - 0

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 7—Kentucky's powerful Wildcats scored three touchdowns in the first quarter and went on to defeat the University of Dayton, 40-0, before 20,000 fans last night.

Although obviously outclassed by Coach Paul Bryant's team, one of the nation's top elevens, the Flyers kept battling the Wildcats until the end and in the last quarter advanced to the Kentucky's two-yard line - - the closest any of the first four foes came to scoring.

It took Kentucky only a minute and a half to score its first touchdown, Babe Parilli passing to End Al Bruno for the marker. A few plays later Parilli completed a 41-yard pass to Bruno, who was stopped on the three-yard line, but on the next play Cliff Lawson went through center for the touchdown. Near the end of the first quarter Parilli faked a pass, then ran 38 yards around end for a TD.

Two touchdowns in the second period made it 33-0 at the intermission. Parilli passed to Wilbur (Shorty) Jamison for the first and a 12 yard aerial to Bruno for the second.

In the second half Coach Bryant's stalwarts were met by a stubborn Dayton eleven and the Ohio lads played the Wildcats on near even terms. A 32-yard pass from Parilli to End John Netoskie gave Kentucky its final marker in the third frame. All-American tackle Bob Gain kicked four extra points out of six tries.

In the last quarter the Flyers twice threatened the Kentucky goal line, moving to the six-yard line before being stopped, and later registering four straight first downs to reach the two-yard stripe. The Wildcats with their regulars in the front line dug in, thus assuring Kentucky its fourth straight shutout.

FLYERS DOWN

T. U. ROCKETS 14 - 13

Toledo, Ohio, October 14—The University of Toledo football team smelled an upset when it clashed with the Dayton Flyers in the Glass Bowl last night—but that's as close as it came—just a smell.

With Leroy Ka-Ne out of action there appeared an outside chance of a T.U. win—that is until a pair of sophomores, Bobby Recker, a Toledoan, and Phil Collins, came through with their first really top performance of the season, and squashed Toledo's hopes.

With Collins and Recker doing most of the work, Dayton drove 70 yards for a score and Bernie Otten made the extra point. Toledo tied the score 4 minutes later, driving from the kick-off.

The first time Dayton got hold of the ball in the second stanza, the Flyers moved 62 yards, aided considerably by a pair of passes from Joe Zaleski to Bill Saelzler, another Toledoan, and more running plays by Recker and Collins. Otten again converted. On the following kick-off, Jim Hays of TU ran the ball back 90 yards to make the score 14-13, and the conversion attempt failed, thus ending the scoring for the night.

MARINES JAR FLYERS 7-0

Eddie LeBaron and his Quantico Leathernecks racked up their fifth straight win before 9000 grid fans by outlasting the Dayton Flyers on the losers' gridiron.

The Dayton footballers, unawed by several players of national renown, played inspired football, holding the Marines to their smallest number of points this season. LeBaron, the little magician from the College of the Pacific, lived up to his reputation. His opposing quarterback, Joe Zaleski, also turned in a neat performance, both passing and running.

Halfback Bob Farrell of Quantico, a former Holy Cross star, counted the game's only touchdown with a 6-yard plunge near the close of the first quarter, climaxing a 94 yard drive by the Leathernecks.

MUSKIES OUTLAST FLYERS 28 - 21

Before a capacity crowd of 14,000 fans in the UD stadium, the Xavier Musketeers from down Cincy way skimmed by a never-say-die University of Dayton team, 28-21.

For a team that had won but two of five starts and had scored but 35 points, Dayton flamed into a battle like a legion of stalwarts fighting for its honor on every play. From a spectator's point of view, it was a terrific thriller. Most of the Dayton fans were totally satisfied with the performance of their Flyers who barely missed painting one of the fall's upset masterpieces.

Sophomore Bobby Recker set the whole crowd to cheering as he dashed down the sideline with the kick-off which he had pulled in on his own 2 yard line. With near perfect blocking, and smart side-stepping on his own part, Ramblin' Robert slipped past the entire Xavier eleven to tally for the Flyers.

Cliff Wilke, the brilliant Musketeer fullback who had scored at least one touchdown in each of his previous 17 college games, ended his string in the stadium where it began.

Xavier was puzzled no end by Dayton's shifting defenses that varied from an 8-man line downward. Coach Joe Gavin designed his defenses and particularly shifted his linebackers to halt the bull-like rushes of Wilke. The Hamilton gridder was eclipsed all right, but the Xavier halfbacks weren't.

Jim Liber and Bob Finnell, hard-driving backs, were magnificent performers who took advantage of the Dayton concentration on stopping the fullback. Finner's dash of 75 yards to the goal line set the Flyers back before the second quarter was a minute old.

STREAKS SPANK FLYERS 24 - 12

A crowd of 5500 chilled fans huddled in the UD stadium to watch a lightning fast John Carroll eleven pin a 24-12 loss on the Flyers in their annual Homecoming tilt.

The Flyers couldn't do much about Don Shula, a hard-driving halfback even on turf growing increasingly heavy and slippery from a snowfall that fell virtually throughout the contest and fairly drove across the field in the second half. In 26 tries, Shula rolled up 175 of the 273 yards Carroll netted on the ground, 30 more than the entire UD team. It was Shula, too, who scored the deciding touchdown with a one yard buck, after the teams had scored once apiece in each of the second and third quarters.

Jimmy Uttermohlen scored Dayton's first TD by ramming over right tackle from the JC nine yard line. Danny O'Brien tallied the other touchdown for the Flyers as he slithered off left tackle, headed for the sidelines, and scooted 25 yards for the score.

The Flyers did a pretty good job of stopping Carroll's "Big Name", holding All-Ohio fullback Carl Tasoff to 72 yards on 17 carries, even if that did bring his 4-year yardage for the Streaks to two miles plus 65 yards, and even though he scored the last touchdown, for No. 17 this season, and a point total of 102.

REDSKINS SCALP FLYERS 27 - 12

A powerful tribe of Redskins hailing from Miami University swept the Dayton Flyers off their feet before 9500 fans at Oxford to the tune of 27-12.

Quarterback Joe Zaleski put on a terrific second half show in his effort to wipe out Miami's advantage. After completing four of five first-half passes, he threw 32 times in the last 30 minutes and completed 19 of the 32.

Dayton was first to score as Bobby Recker pulled in one of Zaleski's aerials and scampered 64 yards for a TD. Co-captain Johnny Callahan bulled his way over the center of the Miami line from the five yard marker to score Dayton's other touchdown.

FLYERS RETAIN GOLDEN CLEAT

Dayton's third victory of a near-gone grid season was finally bagged Saturday with an easy 35-6 triumph over Marshall College before a slim crowd of 8000 fans.

Co-captain Johnny Callahan wound his home career by blasting his way to a pair of touchdowns. Leroy Ka-Ne racked up his last TD on home soil and other scorers over the Thundering Herd were Danny O'Brien and sophomore Joe Young.

In the waning moments of the game, soph quarterback Frank Siggins engineered the last scoring march and it was the snappiest drive of the afternoon, covering 75 yards all told. Siggins flipped twice to end John Chaney for good gains and then from Marshall's 44, hit Young with a neat aerial, which he pulled in on the 25, and sped down the sidelines for a TD.

MOCS BOW TO FLYERS 7-4

Chattanooga, Tenn., November 23—Before 8500 fans at Chamberlain Field on a perfect Thanksgiving afternoon, the Dayton Flyers scored a 7-4 triumph over the University of Chattanooga, winding up the Flyers' season with a 4-6 record.

Quarterback Joe Zaleski took command for the Flyers in the third quarter. After reeling off two first downs on the ground, the Flyers found themselves at midfield. Switching tactics, the Flyers quarterback threw a long pass that covered 44 yards in the air. Jim Currin, 210 pound sophomore end, gathered it in at the 15-yard line and bulled his way through two Chattanooga tacklers the remaining distance to score. Barney Otten's placement added the point and gave Dayton a 7-2 edge.

Late in the game Zaleski dropped back in punt formation and gave the Mocs two more points with a voluntary safety. This accounted for the odd score, but gave Otten a chance to kick off from his own 20 rather than risk a blocked punt in the end zone.

FOOTBALL MANAGERS

Long after the football players had left the locker room after a hard afternoon practice or a collegiate encounter, the lights were found burning in the stadium rooms and if any passer-by should care to venture in to see who was working so late he would probably find the five managers busy checking in all the gear and preparing uniforms for the next session.

Many things go towards the success of a football team. Having competent managers, thus eliminating the worry of one of football's biggest headaches, a football coach is able to unify all his forces towards one end—making everyone feel that he is an essential part in making the team work properly.

SENIOR MANAGER

Not only will coach Joe Gavin have to go around finding replacements for the 17 seniors he lost this past season via the cap and gown route, but he will also have to find a man capable of filling the shoes of head manager John Condon who has been the manager for the past two years. Condon, who hails from Mt. Vernon, Ohio, has been connected with the football team for three seasons and has shared a lot of the headaches with Coach Gavin, but from a uniform and athletic gear angle.

FLYER CAGERS

"From relative obscurity to the nation's sports spot-light," can best describe the rise of the University of Dayton basketball team in the past three seasons. Three years ago coach Tommy Blackburn's lads won 16 games, last year they copped 24 of 32, but this season the UD netters really set the cage world spinning as they annexed 27 of 32 games, and were runner-ups in basketball's biggest show, the National Invitational Tournament in New York. Blackburn loses but one man off the great NIT squad and has a rangy group of freshmen moving up to try for their "moment" in the sports spotlight as varsity members of the Flyers.

BASKETBALL COACH

Coach Tom Blackburn

Coach Tom Blackburn has been at the University of Dayton for four cage seasons and in those four short years he has produced one of the nation's top cage fives which is ranked among the best in the land.

Blackburn faced a tremendous rebuilding job when he took over the reins of the cage crew in 1947. The '46-47 club had won only four of 21 games. Since then Blackburn has had his lads basking in the nation's sports spotlight as he has brought a team out of nowhere to make a real name for itself by whipping some of the country's finest teams.

All American Cager

On any winning ball club there is always one big scoring threat and in the case of the University of Dayton Flyers, Don "Monk" Meineke was the scoring leader. Big Don, who scales 6'7", established a new UD scoring record, smashing his old one of last season, and also broke the Madison Square Garden free-throw record in the second round of the NIT as he swished the nets 15 times to help lead the Flyers to an easy win over Arizona University.

"Monk" made the NIT All-tournament team and at the completion of the basketball season was named to the Helms Athletic Foundation All-American team, which consisted of the top thirty players in the nation. Meineke also was named the number one center in Ohio by members of the Associated and United Press.

Flyers Win 27 of 32

Coach Tom Blackburn's Flyers played basketball in their own backyard this past season as the new U.D. Fieldhouse was completed and capacity crowds jammed the new building to see their favorite sons play some of the top teams of the country. Winners of 27 of their 32 encounters, here's a brief review of the cage season of 1950-51.

Close to 4000 fans watched the Flyers lose their opening game of the season to a spunky Central Missouri State quintet, 50-47, in the first cage tilt in the new fieldhouse . . . The Flyers bounced back with an impressive 57-47 win over the highly ranked Bowling Green Falcons as Junior Norris led the winners with 14 tallies closely tailed by Gene Hickey and Vaughn Taylor with 13 apiece . . . Charley Grigsby paced the Flyers in their second win with 17 points as the Gem City five routed the Anderson College (Ind.) 71-41 on the Hoosier court . . . Classy Evansville College dealt a 60-54 loss to the Flyers at Owensboro, Ky., pinning loss number two on Blackburn's lads . . . Meineke leads scoring for locals as Miami University is dropped, 60-47. Accuracy at the foul line, plus Monk's 22 markers tell the story . . . Flyers travel to Eastern Kentucky and come home with their third loss, 72-66, but the next evening whipped little Berea College, 74-53, to make season total 4 and 3 . . . This starts a thirteen game win streak for Flyers . . . John Carroll is blasted, 72-45, as Monk gets 19 points and Norris tallies 18 . . . Flyers oust unbeaten Tennessee from the honored ranks, 76-61, as Norris and Boyle hit for 17 and 15 points.

LOUISVILLE WHIPPED TWICE BY FLYERS

Arizona State of Tempe is easily mastered, 94-68, as Monk cans 30 points for Flyer's seventh win . . . Magnificent Monk sends his season total to 203 as the Flyers master the highly rated Chicago Loyola five, 74-46 . . . UD hits the century mark against Muskingum College, 100-71, as Joseph fires in a one-handed at the buzzer to hit the coveted point total. Meineke sets a new UD record as he chalks up 49 points against the Muskies . . . Ohio U. is dropped, 75-66, as Meineke gets 23 and Grigsby connects for 18 . . . Dayton comes from 19 points back to whip

Louisville, 66-61, in best played game of season . . . Mighty Toledo is downed, 64-46, as Grigsby leads scorers with 18 . . . Eastern Kentucky loss is revenged by Flyers 76-66 win . . . Kent State is dropped, 66-46, as Meineke gets 24 tallies . . . Second loss is pinned on Toledo Rockets, 67-56, and win streak stretched to 12 now . . . Youngstown Penguins snap win skein with 76-73 win . . . Flyers blast Baltimore Loyola and Chattanooga, 70-54 and 69-44, as Meineke collects 26 and 24 points in each game.

FLYERS WALLOP XAVIER TWICE

Flyers lick Musketeers of Xavier in Cincy, 63-57, in well-played game and before 5600 fans . . . Dayton trips traveling Baldwin Wallace five, 69-55, as Monk drops in 27 tallies and passes the 1000 point mark for two seasons of play . . . Flyers invade Louisville and come home with hard-fought 70-66 win. Hickey pours in 21 points—Flyers get feeler for NIT . . . Miami suffers loss by Flyers, 62-53, as Vaughn Taylor takes over and cans 27 markers, 21 coming in the first half . . . Flyers move into Cleveland and trip John Carroll, 73-42, as Meineke pours in 22 points and smashes his old school record of 510—he now has 529 . . . U.D. skins past Baldwin Wallace for second time, 63-53, while big Monk sparks win with 24 tallies . . . Before largest crowd of season, 6300, Flyers win last home game of season over Xavier, 77-53, as Dayton makes a rout of the game in final ten minutes. Monk gets 22 points and Dayton picks up NIT bid.

RAGS TO RICHES

True, the Flyers were well known throughout the Midwest, but the so-called experts in sports kept ignoring the Flyers during the cage season in their weekly polls, so the Blackburn-coached squad took it upon themselves to become nationally known.

After the Flyers had edged the Redmen of St. John's, the number one seeded team in the NIT, the Flyers were nationally known, and thus their road from rags to riches was complete. They became the Cinderella team of the tourney, and as the largest crowd of the season set in at the final contest, there were many "subway alumni" in the Garden rooting for the "young upstarts" from the Midwest.

The Big City sees Dayton as top billing.

"Playing awful sweet basketball in a Mein-e-k-e, Dayton's Flyers yesterday afternoon sent the 14th NIT off and running with 77-71 victory."

VIA N. I. T.

Following the final game of the NIT, many comments and sentiments were heard coming from a number of New York sports writers and the main trend of thought seemed to come from the fact that, "basketball has been taken off the hook."

For from Ohio's rolling hills and the highlands of Utah had come two ambitious groups of young men to capture the hearts of metropolitan New York . . . Tom Blackburn's Flyers and Stan Watt's classy Cougars.

Faith in the ultimate victory of sport over forces seeking surreptitious gain was exhibited by 18,379 fans who gave Madison Square Garden its largest crowd of the season.

Shaken faith began to steady . . . basketball was making its comeback.

"Deadly pivot pushing of Don Meineke . . . generalship of fiery Dick Campbell . . . overall height advantages . . . confine the skillful patterns of poised Brigham Young?"

Dayton 77 Lawrence Tech 71

Before 8000 Garden fans the University of Dayton Flyers and the Blue Devils from Lawrence Tech sent the 14th annual NIT off and running as the flashy Dayton club led by their All-American Don Meineke edged by the lads from Detroit, 77-71.

The game was nip-and-tuck all the way, but the ever dependable "Monk" took matters in his own hands and dumped in 21 of his 30 points of the afternoon in the final 15 minutes of play to lead his Gem City team mates to victory. Blaine Denning, 6-2 Negro flash with a beautiful soft, lefthanded shot, wound up with 27 points for the losers, and two-thirds of them came in the final 12 minutes of play.

Dayton 77 Arizona 68

Coach Tommy Blackburn's Flyers moved into the semi-finals of the NIT by upsetting fourth-seeded Arizona University in the second round of the tourney. Led once again by the brilliant scoring of Don Meineke, the Flyers sent the Wildcats back West with one of their worst pastings of the season.

Meineke tossed in 37 points and his scoring and rebounding gave the Flyers a comfortable lead in the final five minutes of play. Meineke set a new tournament foul shooting record by canning 15 free tosses and he connected on 11 of 14 field goal attempts. Captain Razor Campbell played a sharp rebounding game and collected 11 markers for the evening.

Norris lays one in as Hutchins of BYU stands by watching.

DAYTON EDGES ST. JOHN'S 69 - 62

The young upstarts from the Midwest, the U.D. Flyers, dropped the number one-seeded ball club of the NIT, St. John's of Brooklyn, to the sidelines as they slipped past the Redmen, 69-62, in the semi-finals of the tourney.

Dayton, which came to the tourney unseeded and unheralded, staged a valiant overtime upset win despite the loss of stars Don Meineke and Junior Norris on fouls midway in the second half. Big Charley Grigsby took over the pivot duties for the Flyers and really ran roughshot over the Redmen and their All-American center, Bob "Zeke" Zawoluk, as he connected for 19 tallies and tossed in two clutch field goals in the overtime to lead his team to this all important NIT triumph.

The rags-to-riches Dayton quintet blew a 10-point lead in the regulation game time, then scored eight quick points to really jolt the Redmen in the five-minute overtime. Vaughn Taylor's perfect lob pass to Grigsby set up the scoring play which broke the overtime wide open as the lanky Grigsby dumped it in to put the decision in favor of the lads from the "corn country."

Hickey scrambles for ball as Denning, (14), comes up fast.

Norris tries to skip past Richey of BYU.

Both teams watch anxiously from the sidelines as action really sparkles in the tilt of the National Invitational Tournament.

FLYERS LOSE TO COUGARS 62-43

Largest Crowd of Season Witness NIT Cage Finals

Capt. Campbell is really "fouled" by BYU star Roland Minson.

Led by crew-cut Roland Minson, and Co-Capt. Mel Hutchins, the Cougars of Brigham Young University from Provo, Utah, annexed the NIT title away from the U.D. Flyers on St. Patrick's night before Madison Square Garden's biggest crowd of the basketball season, 62-43.

The Flyers fell—but hard—before a classy cage outfit ably coached by Stan Watts. The Cougars smashed the game wide open in the first five minutes of the second half as the clean-cut, lean-jawed Minson fired in 26 points to put the game out of the reach of the Dayton five as their 6-7 star, Don Meineke, was completely shackled by the great defensive guarding of Mel "The Cat" Hutchins. Hutchins allowed the Dayton star to mesh only one of 10 shots fired throughout the encounter.

Junior Norris, the 220-pound Dayton guard was a stand-out throughout the finale. The chunky lad poured in 20 points to pace his team, but the rapid fire shooting of Minson and the brilliant defensive job accomplished by Hutchins wrapped up the title for the Skyline Border Champs who had been seeded number three in the tourney.

Capt. Dick Campbell disembarks from plane.

THOUSANDS WELCOME FLYERS HOME

Dayton, the home of aviation, certainly got up in the air when their Flyers moved to the Big City to take part in the NIT. They stayed in the air, too, as the UD cagers annexed this first three games to move into the finals of basketball's biggest spectacle, only to lose out in the finals to a fine quintet from Brigham Young University.

As the Flyers returned to the Gem City, close to 4,000 boosters met the team at the Municipal Airport and then joined fire engines and police cars in a huge motor caravan through the city of Dayton to the UD Fieldhouse where an official "welcome home" program had been arranged by the Dayton Chamber of Commerce.

FIRST PLACE NEXT YEAR!!

Homecoming really staggered the Flyers. Little did they realize that when they landed at the Dayton Municipal Airport that a throng of 4,000 supporters would be on hand to greet them. They were afraid the "folks back home" would be feeling as low as they felt as they allowed the "big one" to get away. They were rudely awakened from their feelings of remorse as they peered from the plane's windows to see the huge crowd pressing close to the fence.

The Flyers were hustled to cars and raced towards the Fieldhouse. Proud Daytonians waved from lighted porches along the way. On Main Street drivers stopped their cars to step out and cheer their team home.

At the Fieldhouse, the Flyers were met by 3,500 citizens, television cameras radio mikes, and the UD band. Merle Smith, '25, city commissioner emceed as city officials, business and industrial leaders, and alumni paid tribute to a gallant ball club.

Mason Roberts, Pres. Chamber of Commerce, congratulates Tom Blackburn for a job well done as UD president, Fr. Renneker, looks on.

FROSH HAVE GOOD START

Under the direction of coach Don Bolton, the UD frosh basketekers posted a record of 14 wins, against 6 losses for the 1950-51 season. Playing some of the top amateur teams in the Miami Valley, plus the freshman teams of Xavier, Miami University, Toledo, and Louisville University, the Bolton-coached lads came up with a fine season.

Basketball mentor Tom Blackburn has some excellent material moving up to the varsity and with the new freshman rule coming into effect allowing freshmen to play varsity ball, the competition will be keen for the berths which will be open on the varsity. Coach Bolton, who was slated for action with the varsity this past season was injured in an industrial accident during the summer and had to forego playing ball, but he is expected to see plenty of cage action next season on the Flyers.

Over 400 boys took part in the expanded sports set-up at UD which was accelerated because of the new fieldhouse. Basketball Runners-Up

Second row—Tom Carroll, Bill Cutcher, Harry VandeVelde, and Dick O'Brien.

The basketball championship was decided by taking the winner and runner-up of each loop and drawing up a round-robin tournament. The Spenders captured the International League title, and because of the round-robin, happened to face the second place Blue Devils also of the same circuit.

INTRAMURAL DIRECTORS

Under the direction of Mr. Reeves Schwartz, the intra-mural set-up took on a completely different aspect considering past years. The three courts in the fieldhouse were in constant use and close to 400 boys took part in the winter program offered by the Physical Education Department. Spring sports attracted approximately 600 students, showing the great part that intra-murals are playing in the student's college program.

TENNIS

The spring sports really brought out the athletic-minded students as close to 600 men took an active part in the intra-mural set-up. HOCKEY

Fall activities were narrowed down to hockey and archery with the emphasis being placed upon hockey since many of the girls taking part in the intra-mural set-up took an active part in this sport. The gals practiced at Walnut Hill Playgrounds and had inter-collegiate encounters with Miami University, Wittenberg College, and the University of Cincinnati.

DIRECTORS

Under the direction of Pat Monnette and Elizabeth Reel the women's sports program was completely revamped with the acquisition of the old gym given over to the full use of the girls. Basketball, badminton, and modern dance took up the major portion of the school year, although in the spring the girls were given instructions in the basic fundamentals of playing golf under the tutelage of the two directors.

Under the direction of Mrs. Reel, the Modern Dance class met two days a week to work on the different styles of dancing which are practiced the world over, both today and in the past. A scheduled modern dance show which was slated for the old gym in early March was postponed because of the basketball tourney in New York.

SPRING SPORTS

As soon as the warm weather hit Dayton, girl's intra-murals ventured to the outside where the spring sports and the facilities at the University could be utilized to the fullest degree. Archery was the first sport to be tried, but soon fell to the popular demand for golf.

Many of the girls took the golfing fundamentals class under the direction of Pat Monnette and before three weeks of instructions had passed many of the gals were trying their luck on the tricky 18-hole course at Community.

Tennis also was a popular spring sports and the UD courts were busy throughout the day as classes and matches were played. A tennis singles championship was staged as was a doubles tourney.

BASEBALL

The 1951 edition of the University of Dayton baseball team was under the direction of a new skipper, coach John Marschall, who succeeded Harry Baujan in the manager's circle. A wealth of young stars have brightened the Flyer baseball picture which seems to indicate better things to come in future years.

This year's squad ended up with a season record of 7 wins against 11 losses. They dropped two encounters each to Ohio State, Miami, and Xavier, all of whom were rated outstanding in the diamond sport this past spring.

With one day of practice the Flyers lost to Ohio State, who had been in training for two weeks in Texas, 15-1. After snow and cold weather froze out one game and all practice sessions, Dayton dropped a 7-0 decision to Miami and then lost to Xavier, 9-1. They then licked Wilberforce, Cedarville, and Wittenberg before running into a red-hot Miami team again and dropping a 7-3 encounter. The Redskins made the Flyers their 12th straight victim in that tilt.

Marschall Takes Over Diamond Reins

Coach Marschall has uncovered a top pitcher in Bob Becker, hard throwing righthander who is only a sophomore. Dick Witt and Tommy Frericks are two other sophs joining juniors Lee Falke and Dick Zimmerman to give Dayton a fast improving mound corps.

Freshman Don Pierce moved in at second base with veteran Bernie Guilfoyle at shortstop and sophomore John Reidinger at third. Frank Schubert, a junior, has handled the catching chores the past season while Vince Daley, Jim Mott, Bill Christian, and Bernie Hoge patrolled the garden spots. Sophomore Tom Carroll joined the club after spring football and Jim Paxson, a freshman cage star, moved into the line-up midway through the season. Mott led the hitting for the Flyers as he rapped the ball at a .336 clip, while Becker led the hurling staff with four wins against two losses.

Outfielders—Bernie Hoge, Vince Daley, Bill Christian, Tom Carroll, and Jim Paxson.

GOLF

Madden Park Golf Course was the home of the U. D. golf team this past season as golf coach Tom Blackburn, who is also the golf pro at Madden, sent his forces out to meet six foes in a season which was shortened because of inclement weather.

Junior Ned Duffy paced the local linksmen in most of their matches, coming up with some brilliant sub-par shooting on several occasions. The golfers started off on the right foot by whipping John Carroll and Xavier Universities, before losing by four team points to Ohio University.

The officers from Wright Field pasted two more defeats on the Flyers before the Gem City outfit won their second engagement from Xavier on the Cincinnati course. Miami University dumped the Flyers in a well played match at Oxford, and Detroit University came up with some brilliant shooting to outlast the local golfers on the Walnut Hill Course in Dayton.

The squad also took part in the Ohio Intercollegiate Golf Tournament which was held at Ohio State University and placed high on the list in the final standings.

TENNIS

Under the direction of Coach Paul Ward, the University of Dayton tennis team enjoyed its most successful season in history as it rang up 14 wins against a duo of defeats.

The netters, led by Bill O'Neill, Nate Newkirk, and Larry Pedicord hung up ten straight wins before having their string snapped by Indiana University. The tennis team's only other loss came at the hands of powerful Detroit. The squad rang up wins over Ohio State, Miami, Xavier, Earlham, Wilmington, Bowling Green, Wittenberg, Wayne and the team from Wright Field. Most of these teams were met on a home-and-home basis.

NEW FIELDHOUSE MEANS BETTER SPIRIT

Everyone is tense and excited as action in the NIT really warms up.

With the construction of the new fieldhouse, plus the winning efforts of the Flyers, the student body of the University was able to rally its forces into one huge mass to cheer their team on to victory.

Huge pep rallies were staged to bolster the spirits of not only the team but of the students and were handled by the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders also performed on the Madison Square Garden court before the Garden's largest crowd of the season, 18782, and also before the television audience which numbered over two million.

REMEMBER, SWEET?

Do you remember when we met . . . One evening at a dance . . . And how I was enchanted by . . . Your first delightful glance? . . . Do you remember what I said . . . And what your lips replied . . . And how I hungered in my heart . . . To linger at your side . . . It was a magic moment, sweet . . . That made my dreams come true . . . and all the sky was like a shawl . . . Of silver and of blue . . . We left the crowd and strolled away . . . Beyond the slightest sound . . . And life was like a paradise . . . with beauty all around . . . I know that you remember, sweet . . . And in my grateful heart . . . The love that you have given me . . . Will never grow apart.

FRESHMEN WELCOME

The first freshman class of the second century was welcomed to the University of Dayton in grand style on the night of September 30. The climax of Freshman Week, that gala Saturday evening, saw close to four-hundred beauties and their beaux dance to the strains of Earl Holderman's orchestra, with Patricia Raterman and Tony Bardo reigning as Queen and King. Properly initiated into the fold, the students then went about the business of forgetting that such a thing as school existed, and were quite successful as shown by the number of parties they just "happened in on."

Nothing like making new friends!

Why so formal?

Jim is too satisfied; won't look at the camera.

PERSHING RIFLES DANCE

The Pershing Rifles held their annual Christmas Ball at Lakeside. The splendor of uniforms and festive formals lent attractive color to the grand occasion. Woody Herman furnished the music.

Exhibitions were given by the Rifle Staff under Capt. William Herlihy, and the special Exhibition Squad under Lt. Walter Rienhart.

The Honorary Colonel Miss Marilyn Hauer climaxed her reign by bestowing the crown on Miss Marlene Fischer.

Top—Queens and military escorts receiving ovation.
Middle—Conversations sparkles at pauses between dances.
Bottom—Throngs gave homage to royalty.

HOME

It isn't any trouble just to S-M-I-L-E!

On November 4, the University of Dayton expanded and became three institutions in one when the Alumni returned to its Alma Mater. To some, it was St. Mary's Institute, to others it was St. Mary's College, and to still others it was, and is, the University. The weather may have dampened the "spirits" of some, but it fired the enthusiasm of those who watched as our Flyers played host to John Carroll. Half-time festivities included the crowning of Pat Radican as Homecoming Queen and Kate Maroglou as Freshman Attendant, together with the performance of the Alumni Band on mid-field. The downtown hotels later were the scene of many class reunions as old friendships were renewed and memories recalled.

COMING

Clear all tables for a picture!

A tooth-y foursome!

MILITARY BALL

With hilarity and fun the "order of the night," never was there such compliance with a command as on March 30, when the Scabbard and Blade opened the post-Lenten social season with the presentation of the annual Military Ball.

Highlight of the dance was the crowning of the organization's sponsor, Sis Crotty, by the commanding officer of Scabbard and Blade, Rudy Roof. Miss Joanne Crotty will reign over the military group until next year.

Music was furnished by two fine orchestras, Elton Dale and Bob Bissett.

JUNIOR PROM

For a successful Junior Prom, bring in a smooth orchestra, add the hard work of the junior class dance engineers, and top it off with a beautiful queen. The juniors presented this combination on the night of January 26, with the orchestra of Ray Anthony, the engineers of the dance being Bill Enouen, Bill Kehl, Lee Falke and Bill Hallerman among others, and the beautiful queen being Beverly Whisler.

Beverly gets a crown and fanfare.

After the dance is over!

TURNABOUT TAG

The night of April 6 found a social switch taking place on and about the hilltop. Sleek new cars and gasping old ones pulled up before Alumni and St. Joe halls and any number of Dayton homes. Coeds, laden with corsage boxes, emerged to call for their dates. The long awaited Turnabout Tag was less than an hour away.

At Lakeside, the girls checked coats, waited in line for drinks and popcorn, and led their dates to the dance floor—all the while keeping one eye on their watches, waiting for 11 o'clock and intermission. Suspense mounted as Peg Kunka, master of ceremonies, called king candidates to the bandstand. Then the announcement—Mike Smith was the women's choice for 1951 Tag king. For the first time, a candidate backed by an independent group was the recipient of royal laurels. Mike was crowned by his campaign manager, Pauline Kelley.

The "knights" who made up King Mike's court were Bobby Recker, WAA candidate; Jerry Moore, sponsored by CSMC, and Dave Smith, Flyer's Hangar candidate.

The golden-crowned king and his escort, Ann Utz, led the traditional grand march, as faculty members sized up corsages. And what a job selection of this year's winner turned out to be! There were so many eye-catching creations.

Music by Bob Bissett's orchestra filled the ballroom. The committee which took a bow for a memorable and well attended sixth annual Tag included Jackie Pohl, Marilyn Catron and Mary Ellen Nagle, chairman; Katie Maroglou, tickets; Mary Marcum, decorations, and Shirley McGarvey, chairman of campaigns.

No record of Turnabout would be complete without mention of the feverish campaigns which preceded it. There were noisy parades, and the arcade, lounge and Student Union were plastered with bright posters and vote-winning pictures. Stunt that is best remembered was staged in the Chaminade hall "caf." Dave Smith, as Prince Charming, kissed and awakened a masked Sleeping Beauty.

Everyone had fun—and agreed, with enthusiasm, that "Turnabout is fair play."

The Beer Industry Prospered!

JEAN JAMBOREE

About one-hundred Jeans jamboreed with their Genes when Omega staged its annual Jean Jamboree. The date, Friday, the 13th of April, furnished the theme of the dance. No superstitions! Black cats, (one was active and too alive), opened umbrellas, a ladder serving as entrance, such things decorated the Democratic Club, for the event.

The Farewell dance brings serious thoughts.

SENIOR

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot . . . " Such could be the theme of the 1951 Senior Farewell as a capacity crowd jammed Lakeside's Crystal Ballroom on May 25th. Music was furnished by the very popular Claude Thornhill, his piano, and his orchestra, as the students and friends of U.D. closed its social functions of the year.

Through the work of committee chairmen, Pauline Spring, Ed Ednie, Dan Ferrazza, and Don Cosgrove, the dance proved to be a big success. The Senior Class President, Dick Mayer, introduced the committees at intermission and spoke briefly on the meaning of the Farewell, and the record of the Senior class.

Nice weather enticed groups outdoors.

The camera catches just a few of the groups.

FAREWELL

"One last pose; let's have a crowd!"

"Is a deferment worth all this?"

"Looks like T.V. tag team!"

"P.R.'s Whoop it up!"

"All those beautiful girls!"

SHOT ON THE SPOT

"The Cafeteria"—where school elections are won and lost."

MY ALL FOR YOU

If you could know the part you play . . . In all I try to be . . . You would begin to understand . . . How much you mean to me . . . And you would know that everything . . . I ever undertake . . . Is not for my convenience but . . . For your beloved sake . . . That I am happy only when . . . I know that what I do . . . Will ultimately bring about . . . Some happiness for you . . . I never see the sun begin . . . Or end another day . . . Without I say a silent prayer . . . To help you on your way . . . You mean so much to me that I . . . Must honestly confess . . . That everything I ever do . . . Is for your happiness.

TURNABOUT KING

The King of the traditional Turnabout Tag reigned at Lakeside Ballroom the night of April 6, 1951 in regal splendor. Mike Smith, of Dayton, Ohio, was chosen by the coeds of the University of Dayton over three other candidates: Jerry Moore, Dave Smith, and Bobby Recker.

The dance itself introduced much frivolity through the feminine ingenuity displayed in all types and kinds of mad creations of men's cor-sages, in an effort to walk-off with first prize.

Music by Bob Bissett's orchestra was one of the fine touches to the whole affair. After a week of feverish campaigning everyone settled down to having himself a good time. All the efforts put forth were not in vain, for everyone agreed that it was the outstanding dance of the season.

FRESHMAN ATTENDANT

This popular Fairview graduate garnered the coveted Freshman attendant crown, as candidate of the Engineers. With her wide grin and dark hair she has endeared herself to the University. Despite the inclemencies of Ole Man Winter, her personality went out to those thousands of football fans, who witnessed the choice of the elections.

Each staff member could submit three pictures. Nominees were chosen for personality, beauty, loyalty, and school spirit; we were faced with many lovely choices. We hope you are pleased with the finalists as we are.

Shakespeare's advice to Polonius' son —and to U of D seniors...

... See thou character. Give thy thoughts no tongue.
Nor any unproportion'd thought his act.
Be thou familiar, but by no means vulgar.
The friends thou hast, and their adoption tried,
Grapple them to thy soul with hoops of steel;
But do not dull thy palm with entertainment
Of each new-hatch'd, unfledg'd comrade. Beware
Of entrance to a quarrel; but being in,
Bear 't that the opposed may beware of thee.
Give every man thine ear, but reserve thy judgement.
Take each man's censure, but reserve thy judgement.
Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy,
But not express'd in fancy; rich, not gaudy;
For the apparel oft proclaims the man,
And they . . . of the best rank and station
Are most select and generous in that.
Neither a borrower nor a lender be;
For loan oft loses both itself and friend,
And borrowing dulls the edge of husbandry.
This above all: to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Polonius' advice to his son

BEST OF LUCK '51

Today more than ever before in history our nation is depending on our young college graduates for its future success. You have earned the right to go forth and prove yourself in your chosen field.

The world will always have room for men and women with vision and determination, for an enlightened nation is a strong nation.

If America is to continue strong we must do everything within our power to protect and preserve our country's heritage and ideas. We must never allow our system of education to weaken and become decadent. Learning and education do not cease at graduation. The world needs sound minds developed in the spirit of good-will, for the strength of America and all the free countries of the world lies in its mentally alert and well-informed people.

"Locally Owned, Widely Known"

U. J. RIEGER - PRESIDENT

Teach us, good Lord, to serve Thee as Thou deservest;

To give and not to count the cost;

To fight and not to heed the wounds;

To toil and not to seek for rest;

To labour and not asking for any reward;

Save that of knowing that we do Thy will.

A LAST WORD

The work of the Daytonian staff started in September with the opening of classes, and went on till July. This is an experiment in a "summer book" with opportunities of incorporating the activities on the "Hilltop" as they occurred to the very end of the year.

The staff were few, and inexperienced, but bravely began this task of tasks. The editor, Jimm Horvath, had nothing but the dream of an idea as a goal; he planned and sketched and wrote and talked, did literary and photographic duty, and slaved under the threat of deadlines.

Greatest appreciation is due to the staff "finalists" who had to bring numerous threads together after vacation began. Bill Kehl worked through one of the biggest years in the annals of UD sports history. Our little, dark-haired business manager, Julie Raney, should be congratulated for doing a tremendous job in her department. Peggy Howley and Julie Pflaum worked long and late those last weeks checking all details towards a perfect job. Banner work was done by Shirley Schroll, particularly in the final stretches of feverish preparation of the dummy for delivery to the printer; smiles were still possible because Jim Baumgarten, with Mary Carey and Pat Donisi from the Engineering office came through with needed copy and typewritten matter. Alan Camin willingly gave much of his time to gather photographic copy; Bob Heck and Pete Chmielewski contributed at critical times.

Deserving of mention, further are Sandy Stevens, Mary Ann Weisman, Clare Rohr, Mark Smith, and Jim Nyhan, who served in various capacities on the staff. Dave Lutes and "Pep" Wilson were invaluable for their sports photographic coverage; we appreciate their help and contributions.

A word of grateful mention is due, too, to the patient and untiring help of Jim Oldham, representative of Jahn and Ollier Engraving Company, and to William Amos, from the Sidney Printing and Publishing Company whose advice and suggestions helped bring the book through its most critical stages.

But, most of all, to Brother Louis A. Saletel, S.M., the guiding light of the "Daytonian," who despite his many other duties, gave unselfishly of his hours and energy, we say our thanks for having brought the book to its completion.

Ever Forward

Another year has run its course . . . twelve months have come and gone . . . however we have used the time . . . we have to carry on . . . however great our glory now . . . or ill the wind that blew . . . there is another year ahead . . . with many things to do . . . the hours are not long enough . . . to ponder or regret . . . for there are struggles to be faced . . . and problems to be met . . . Then let us gird ourselves anew . . . and keep our courage high . . . and to the pattern of the past . . . now briefly say good-by . . . Let us ask God for stronger faith . . . and nobleness of mind . . . Let us go forward in the dawn . . . and never look behind.
